

More than silly love songs at Ipswich concert

Q Zoom

AfterFab will play Castle Hill Thursday, July 16 as part of the summer concert series. Courtesy photo

Posted Jul. 15, 2015 at 10:00 AM

IPSWICH

WHAT: AfterFab, a Beatles tribute band specializing in the music of the Beatles solo years

WHEN: Thursday, July 16, 7 p.m. to 9 p.m. Gates open at 5 p.m. for picnicking. Space limited. First come.

WHERE: Castle Hill on the Crane Estate, 290 Argilla Road.

PRICE: $30 per car or $20 per car for members of The Trustees of Reservations. Motorcycles, Bicycles and walk-ins, $10. At the gate.

ABOUT THE EVENT: "Imagine." "It Don't Come Easy." "When We Was Fab." "Photograph." "1985." "All Things Must Pass." "Instant Karma." "Jet." "We All Shine On." "My Sweet Lord." "Working Class Hero." "Baby I'm Amazed." "Helen Wheels." "Give Me Love." "Band on the Run." "Let Me Roll It." "Whatever Gets You Through the Night."

The Beatles solo careers were and are much more than silly love songs. Each ex-Beatle was a rock 'n' Roll star in his own right. The six-member, eastern-Massachusetts band, AfterFab explores the Fab Four's solo work. Jon on vocals and percussion; Ad on guitar, vocals and keyboard; Tom on drums and vocals; Mike on bass, vocals and percussion; Bryan on keyboards and Lauren on guitar and vocals comprise the band.

Bring a picnic supper or purchase seafood, empanadas, pizza and ice cream from on-site vendors. Ipswich Ale and Mill River Winery will sell beverages on-site at a beer and wine garden, located partway down the Grand Allee. Outside alcoholic beverages prohibited.

Weather cancellations will be announced by 3 p.m. concert-day.

Visit thetrustees.org for more information on concert vendors, visitation, and other public programs.