Recalling the best of The Beatles

AfterFab, a New England-based tribute band devoted exclusively to the solo careers of John, Paul, George, and Ringo, will perform at 8 p.m. Saturday, Sept. 12 at Amazing Things Art Center, 160 Hollis St., Framingham. The group members hail from Rockport to Worcester, including local music teacher and Framingham resident, keyboardist Bryan Eyberg. AfterFab's mission is to bring the best of the Beatles' solo works to the stage with high fidelity to the original recordings and high energy. Opening the show will be Bird Mancini, of Boston, performing as an acoustic quartet. Tickets range from $20 for adults, discounts for students and seniors, and can be purchased by visiting tickets.amazingthings.org. For more information, call 508-405-2787 or visit afterfab.com or amazingthings.org.
