

THE ARTS

Tribute to the solo music of The Beatles comes to Hooker-Dunham Theater

BRATTLEBORO—AfterFab, America’s only tribute to the solo careers of John Lennon, Paul McCartney, George Harrison, and Ringo Starr, will perform at the Hooker-Dunham Theater, 139 Main St., on Saturday, March 21, at 7:30 p.m.

AfterFab is a declaration that The Beatles’ magic didn’t stop with their last album, Abbey Road, in 1970.

The Fab Four’s solo careers continued to produce stellar music, and AfterFab’s high-energy, high-fidelity renderings put all four solo Beatles together into one show.

As solo artists, The Beatles scored 70 hit singles and 325 million record sales. AfterFab’s six members bring to the stage so many classics, from “Band on the Run” and “Imagine” to “It Don’t Come Easy” and “What Is Life,” plus many other iconic tracks.

These songs are bedrock in the landscape of 1970s and 1980s rock and pop, and part of the musical DNA of anyone who grew up during that time.

AfterFab’s show includes an accompanying video and is open to all ages.

Tickets are $13 in advance, $15 at the door. Contact the Hooker-Dunham Theater at 802-254-9276 for more information.

Originally published in The Commons issue #296 (Wednesday, March 11, 2015). This story appeared on page B3.