AfterFab, the only tribute band in the Americas playing the songs of the solo Beatles is coming to Plymouth on Saturday night, February 20, 8:00 PM. Cha-Chi LoPrete, host of the Breakfast with the Beatles show on WZLX, will host the show. Loretta Laroche Productions is producing the event in their own venue, Studio G, and advance tickets are on sale now.

AfterFab's unique concept has fans buzzing. The genius of The Beatles didn't stop with Abbey Road, and AfterFab brings the brilliant solo careers of Lennon, McCartney, Harrison, and Starr to life with high energy and high fidelity to the original recordings. Over 70 hit singles and numerous iconic tracks compose one of the best-loved classic-rock canons ever, from "Band on the Run" and "It Don't Come Easy" to "Imagine," "What Is Life" and dozens more. AfterFab has attracted praise from noted Beatles experts and authors such as Robert Rodriguez, Candy Leonard, Ricardo Pugialli, and others. "They did the solo stuff and rocked it!" declared promoter Charles Rosenay following AfterFab's 2014 performance at his Danbury Fields Forever Fab Four Music Festival. Ken Michaels, host of the syndicated Beatles radio show Every Little Thing, remarked, "Passion. You could see it in their faces. They've really studied the music. And the lead singer, he was outrageous!"

AfterFab has built a solid reputation in concert clubs and performing-arts theaters throughout New England and is excited to be performing for the first time on the South Shore. This is the Beatles music that fans have been missing! See video, hear audio at AfterFab.com.
